

FECCA – ECCWA 2009 WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Refugee and Immigrant Women Setting the Social Inclusion Agenda

The conference coincides with the celebrations of International Women's Day and will bring together researchers, practitioners, policy makers, community members and organisations to:

- showcase the achievements of refugee and immigrant women
- share the knowledge, skills and expertise of refugee and immigrant women
- address barriers to accessing services
- develop strategies to fulfill the full potential of refugee and immigrant women
- ensure actions are developed and documented to improve social inclusion for refugee and immigrant women
- facilitate opportunities for networking and connections among delegates

Key themes to be addressed will include:

- Leadership and Participation in Decision Making
- Family Life (child care, housing, parenting, sport and recreation)
- Employment and Training

Leading women from politics, business and the community sector will be speaking at the conference.

Friday 6 and Saturday 7 March 2009
Perth, Western Australia

Further details, programs and speakers to follow soon
from FECCA and ECCWA

For further information contact Nadia Loncar (ECCWA) on
(08) 92275322 or eccwa.women@inet.net.au

Ethnic Communities Council of Western Australia